

Boogie Bugle

February 2012

Happy Valentine's to LASC members,

The Mid-Winter SOS weekend was a fun time for several Lynchburg club members braving the colder beach temperatures. We had to have a coat and walk a little faster between clubs, but we warmed up on the dance floor. Jim Rose, a LASC member and resident of North Myrtle Beach, was DJ at OD Resort Beach Club on Friday and our club was well represented. If you are bored with winter, you should give Mid-Winters a try. Read on in the Bugle to see what happened to another club member, Max Doss, while at Mid Winters. He made a memory he will never forget.

I, along with Dianne Johnston and Carolyn Thomas, attended the ACSC meeting on Saturday. We were reminded of the upcoming ACSC Winter Workshop on February 24-26, 2012 hosted by the Beaufort Shag Club at the Crown Plaza Oceanfront on Shipyard Plantation in Hilton Head, SC and the ACSC Summer Workshop on July 13-15, 2012 hosted by the First Coast Shag Club and held at the Wyndham Riverwalk Hotel in Jacksonville, Fla. Attendance from each shag club is required at both workshops.

The Lynchburg Area Shag Club made in January charitable donations to 15 local charities, totaling $1,900. The complete list appears in the Bugle. Your membership dues in the shag club are what make this possible for the LASC to give back to the community.

To add to your dance opportunities, mark your calendar for March 18, 2012 for the Band of Oz. We have tickets to help the Piedmont District of Boy Scouts of America who are sponsoring this. Come and earn your "Shag Badge" on Sunday, March 18 at the Holiday Inn Select, Lynchburg, Va. From 2:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. Tickets are $20 in advance and $25 at the door. To purchase tickets, contact me at 384-7234 or Muriel Hunter at 525-6633. More details are in the Bugle.

See you on the dance floor.

A NOTE FROM MACK DOSS

Mid-Winters SOS was just that – winter!!!! Although it was bitterly cold and windy outside, things were warm on the dance floors at the different clubs for this break in the winter blues. Highlight for me was dancing not once but twice with Ellen Taylor (queen of shag and master dance instructor) - - - even came home with her autograph on the sleeve of my best dress shirt.

Her message (looking forward to another dance- Ellen - 1-12-2012) will be a reminder to me of this lovely lady who captivates me and many others with her class, charm and style! My message to her would be the same – looking forward to another dance!
